ITD 212 - Game Design Project Milestone #2

Leslie Benson & Heather Walters

Game Title - Extreme Paper Maze

In this game you deliver newspapers on a dragon. A newspaper must be delivered to all of the customers in each neighborhood before the time runs out to earn points, advance to the next level, and to obtain a different dragon. There will be obstacles (trash cans, dogs, etc.) that can prevent delivering to certain houses. If faced with obstacle at a house, finish delivering to the other houses and come back to the house where the obstacle was redeliver. Also there will be a need to watch for papers lying in the road that have blown out of the paper boxes. Pick those up and return to the box. There are three levels in the game. Each level will have an increasing amount of houses, obstacles and misplaced papers.

How to play Extreme Paper Maze

- To move the dragon left or right use the left and right arrow keys. To move the dragon forward use the up arrow.
- To deliver the papers use the spacebar.
- To pick up papers use the control key.
- To complete a level you must deliver all the papers before the clock runs out.
- If you complete a level you will also earn money and a new dragon.
- To win the game you must complete all three levels.
- Not completing a level will result in your losing your newspaper delivery job and many dissatisfied customers.
