Minutes:

- Fine Arts Club met to establish field trips/ activities:
 - Trip to Taubman in Roanoke on April 1st cancelled due to lack of interest.
 - Trans-Alleghany Mental Asylum on April 22nd. Students pay $20 and the club pays the rest.

Formal Business was discussed:

- Club members voted to collect cans during the month of May leading to a pie in the face for a professor.
 - It was noted again that students always pay at least half of the price of events.

Refreshments and food was served and paid for by the club.

Summary:

All attention is now focused on the West Virginia Trip and the canned food collection. Glen will make the posters to advertise the event.
